Os Gemeos Work In Progress - Vancouver, Canada (Part II)

Os Gemeos are bringing their "Giants" project to Canada where they are currently transforming six giant industrial silos with their signature characters for the Vancouver Biennale 2014 on Granville Island in Vancouver.

The mural is part of the Vancouver Biennale's 2014-2016 exhibition, a non-profit organisation that celebrates art in public spaces. Public crowd source funding is helping to offset the cost of the $125,000 project.

The Brazilian duo should be done by September 7th so keep your eyes peeled on Street Art News for our final images on these yellow "Giant".
