

Jessica

I am.... Jessica

My family is from... China, but they came to Richmond.

i wonder... if we are going to Mars in the future.

i see... the soft breeze wafting through the trees

i hear... one voice talking out of a thousand.

i want... the world to understand who we are.

i am...(the 1st line repeated) Jessica

I share my culture by... speaking the language of my people

i pretend... that I will someday make the world respect

i feel... like ^{us} the warmth of the sun's rays.

i touch... my pencil that never stops writing.

i worry... that we will all be lonely someday.

i cry... when no one is there for me.

i am...(1st line repeated) Jessica

i understand... that there are kind people all around us.

i say ... that we should speak what's on our minds.

i dream... that I could climb away from all my

i try... ^{worries} to make the world a better place.

i hope... that I can be a better person.

i am Canadian

And I bring.....kindness.....to my community.
